NRO REVIEW COMPLETED

Comments on Executive Summary of the ISMS

Page 32, Second Paragraph:

Change next to the last line to read as follows: ". . . permit determination of an initial approximation of the relationship between GRD and GSD as regards information content."

Page 34, Last Sentence:

Change last sentence to read as follows: "The three missions per year, however, did not achieve all of the satisfaction levels called for in these requirements."

Page 38, First Line:

Change "most" to "many". (REASON: Consistency with data developed in the body of the report.)

Page 40:

Pages 41 and 42:

Drop the two Mid East maps from the Executive Summary. REASON: They do not stand on their own, and are more appropriate as supporting documentation in the body of the report itself.

Attached are some targets which have been suggested for NPIC to look at in relation to the upcoming Presidential trip. They are provided by CIA/OSR with a request to relay them for ad hoc guidance on what to look at first in the [REDACTED] materials, if available. They do not represent a formal request for reporting, but rather a check list for guidance purposes.
